The Minister of Law had indicated that the suggestions made by the various Bar Councils, Bar Associations etc., would be incorporated in the new Bill to obviate the piecemeal legislation to amend the Advocates Act, 1961. The Minister of Law also stated that he had in mind to provide for legal aid to poor as also the desirability of including suitable provisions for the recognition of foreign degrees in law for the purpose of practising in the Courts in India on a reciprocal basis with other countries including the United Kingdom.
